PORT COQUITLAM

The property is located within one of the Tri-Cities' most active retail corridors along Lougheed Highway, surrounded by a strong mix of neighbourhood shopping centres and daily-service retailers. Nearby centres such as Poco Place and Westwood Centre provide a diverse range of shops, restaurants, and services that generate consistent local traffic. The area is further supported by larger retail destinations including Fremont Village and the regional draw of Coquitlam Centre, creating a well-established retail node with strong consumer traffic and a broad customer base.

The property is well-served by public transit, with multiple bus routes operating along Westwood Street and connecting to key transit hubs such as Coast Mountain Bus Company routes and the nearby Millennium Line. Commuters benefit from quick access to Coquitlam Central Station, a major transit exchange offering SkyTrain, West Coast Express, and regional bus service, ensuring efficient connectivity across Metro Vancouver.
