Pet Retail Business in Langley

A rare opportunity to acquire an established specialty pet retail business in Langley. Positioned within a growing, family-oriented community, the business offers a comprehensive selection of premium pet nutrition, raw and natural foods, treats, supplements, toys and accessories.

The business is built around quality products, knowledgeable service and a strong focus on pet health and wellness. The combination of an established retail platform, recognized national brand and compelling location creates an attractive opportunity for an entrepreneur seeking to acquire and grow an existing business rather than build from the ground up.
